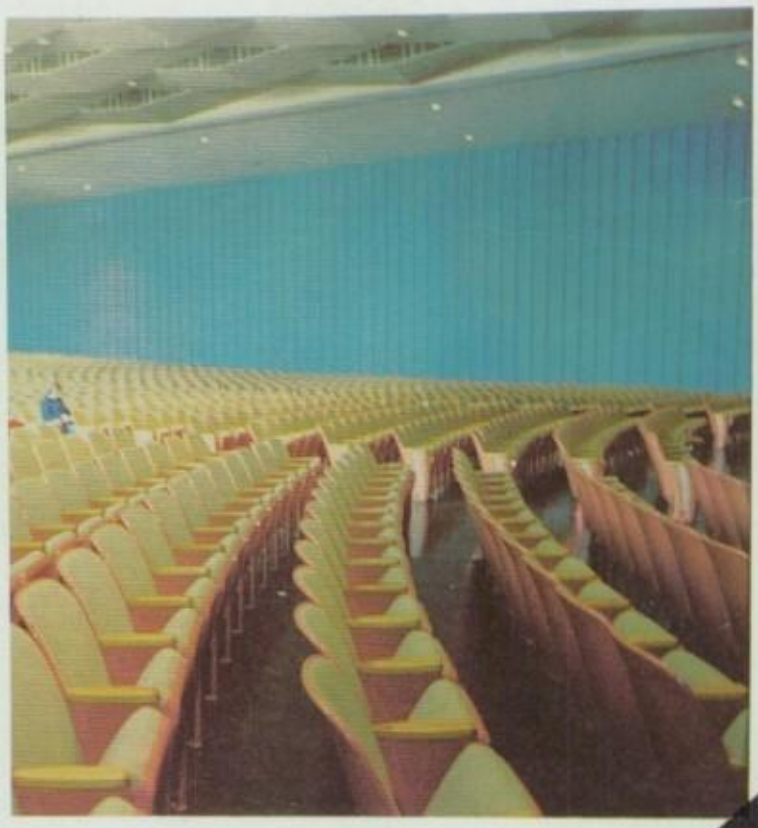
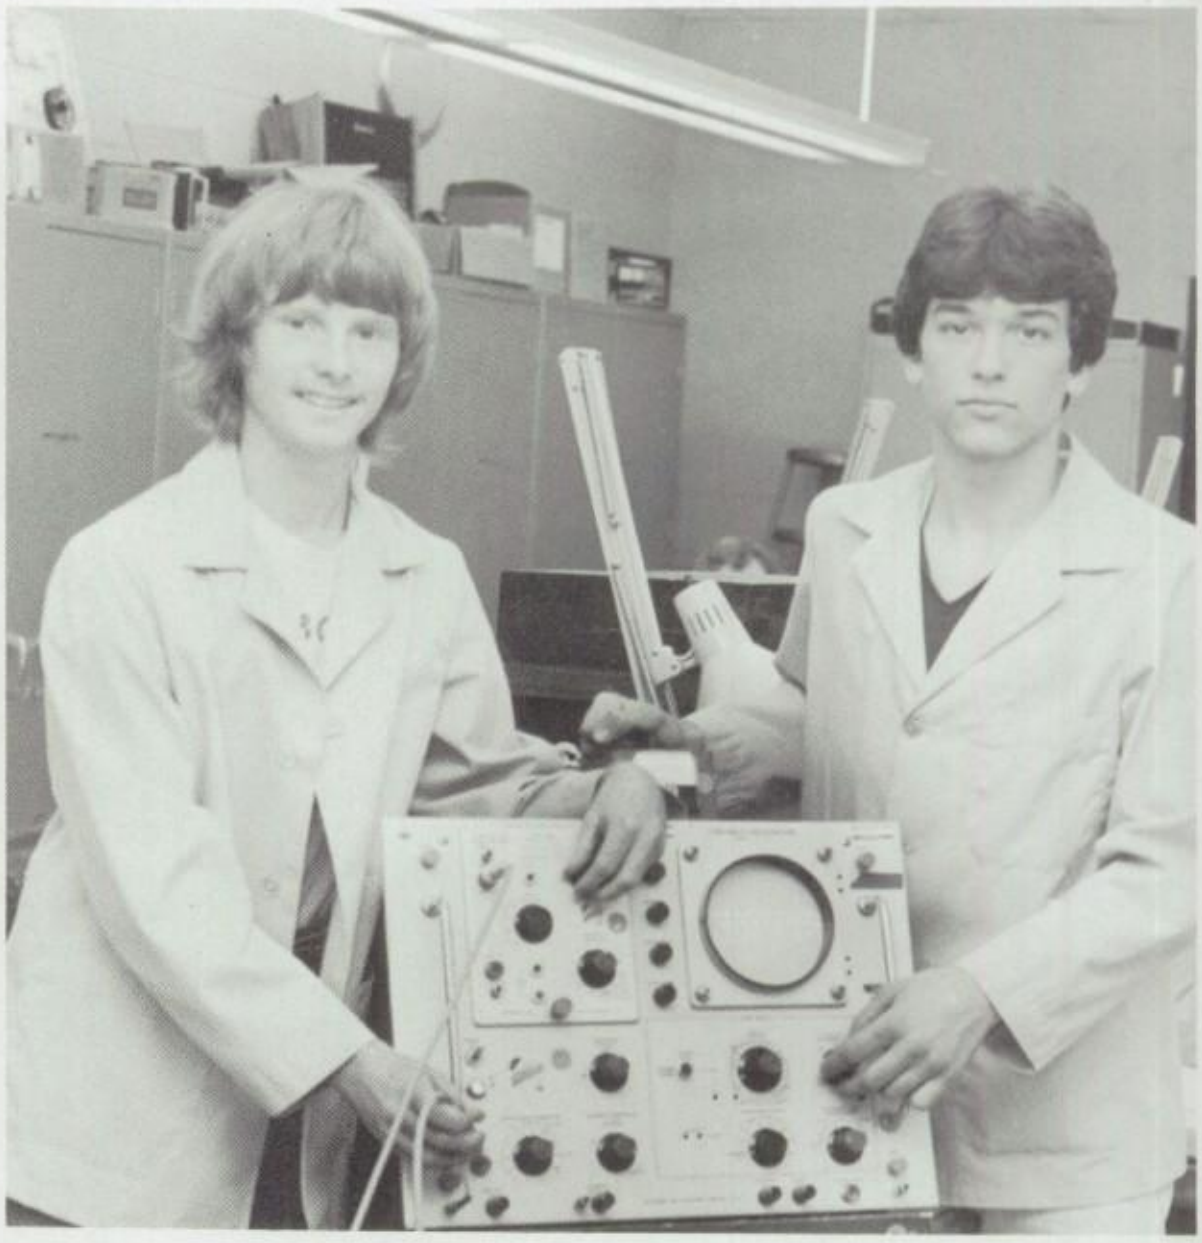
Shall Pass By Us



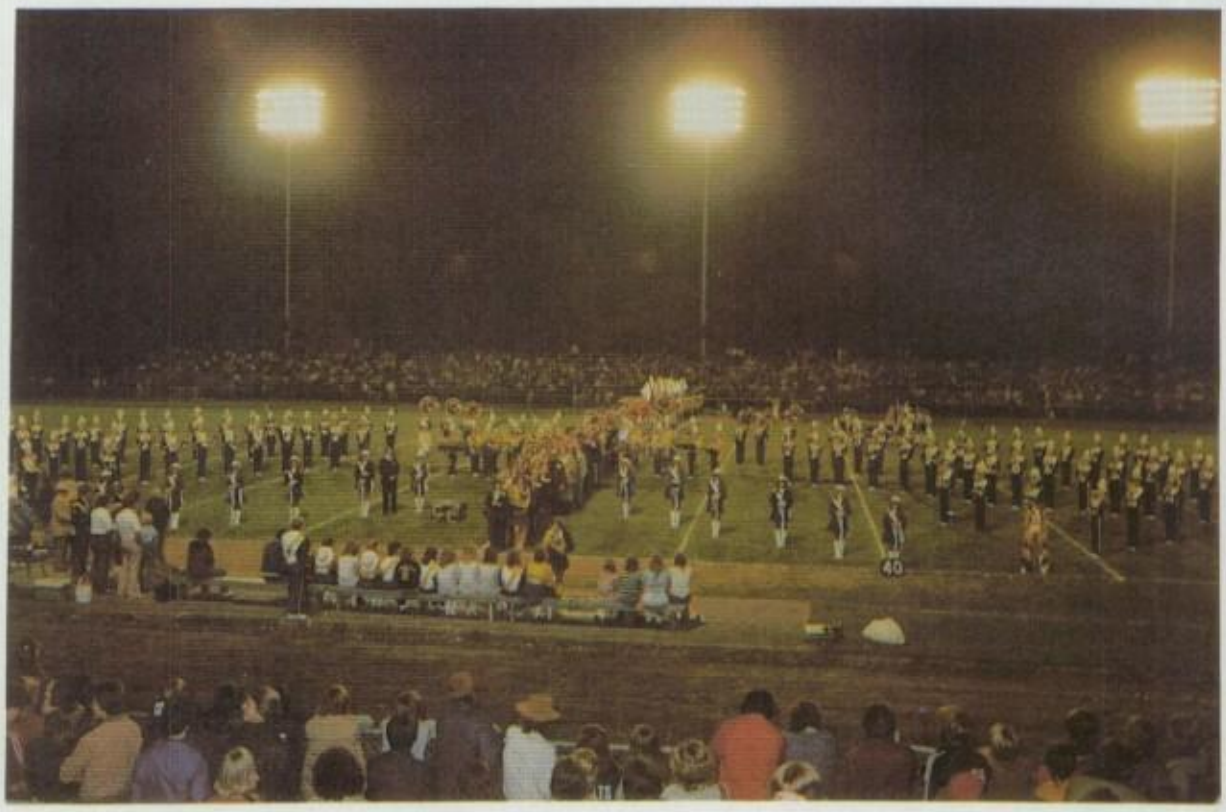
Vo-Tech

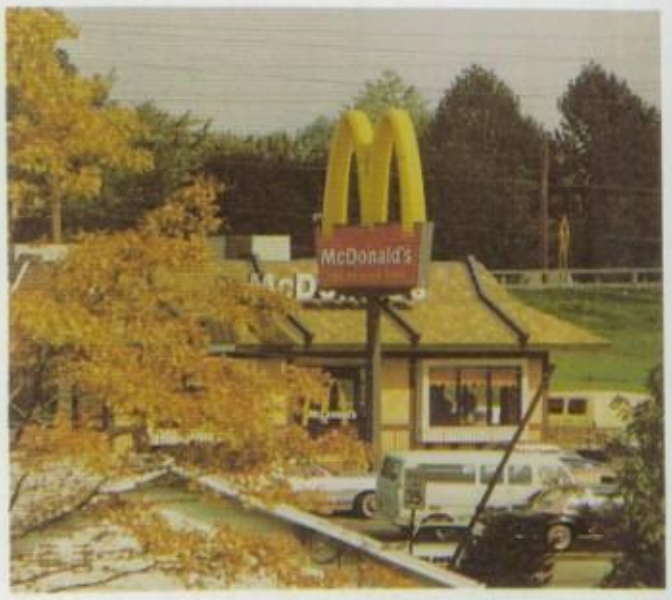


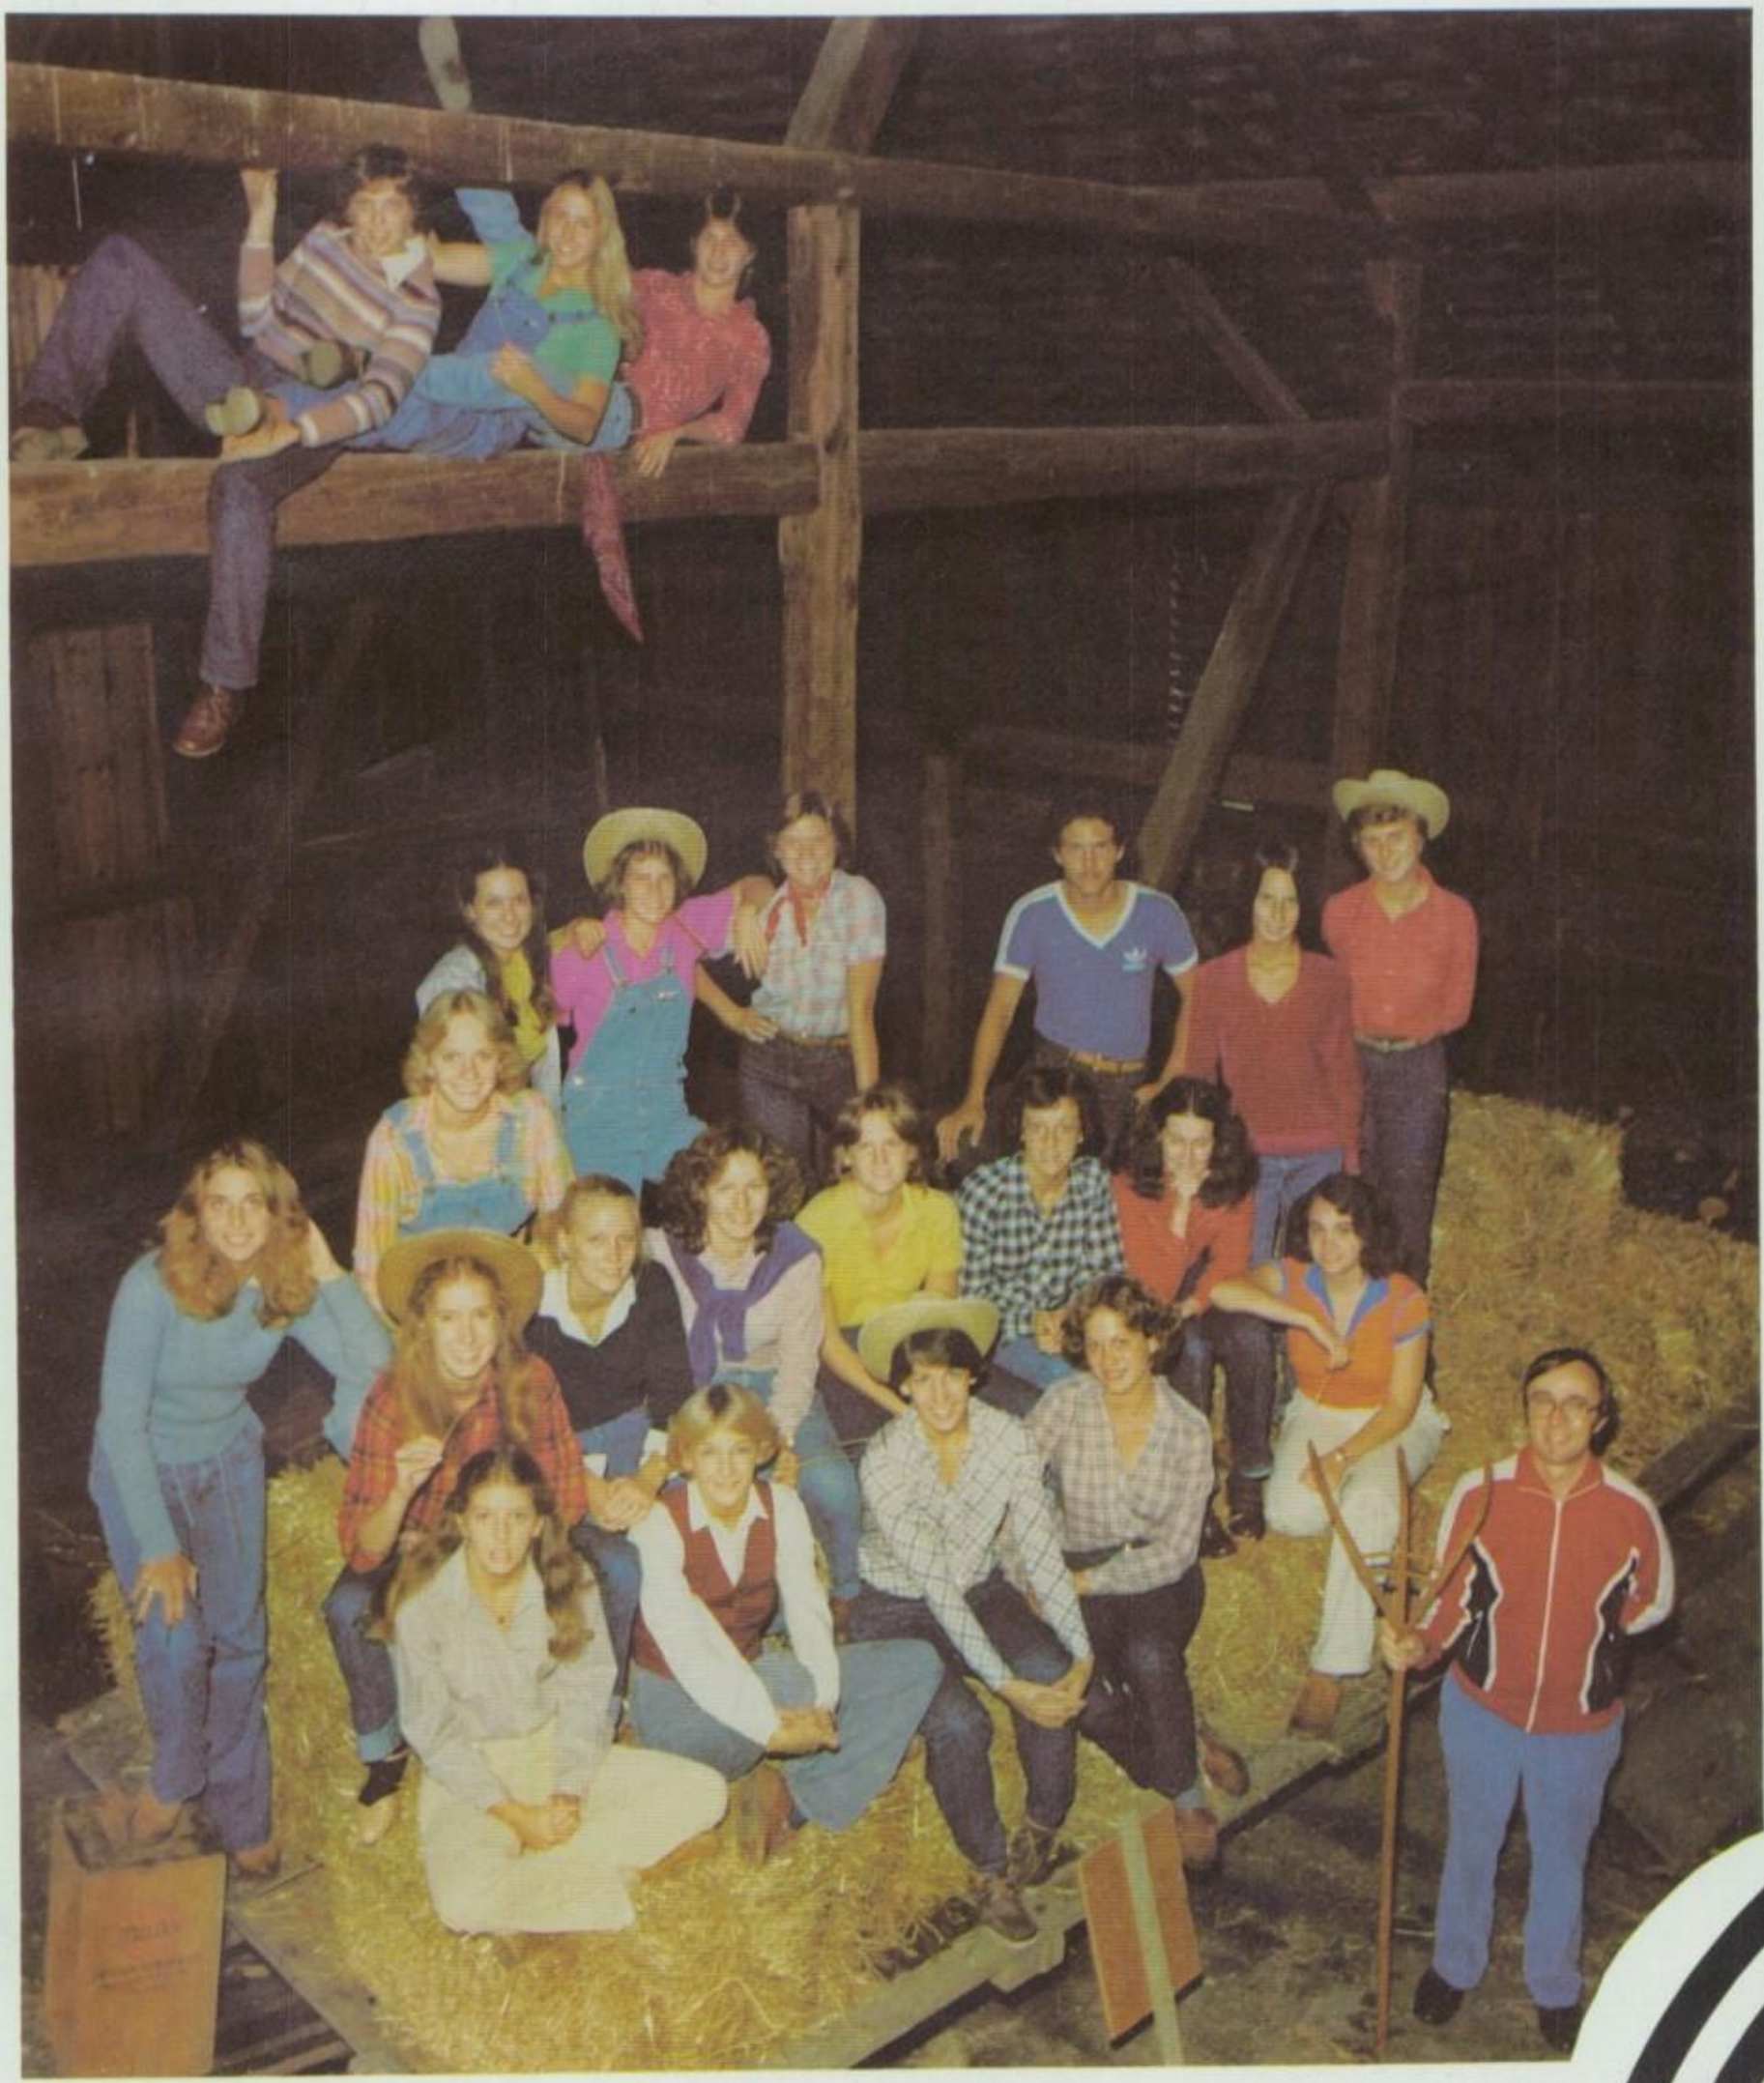
110 students concerned about their futures spent half the day at the Cumberland-Perry Vocational Technical School and attended Cedar Cliff the other half. By taking courses such as cosmetology, horticulture, masonry, and woodworking, they have acquired practical as well as academic skills.

A combined educational and vocational background has prepared these students to successfully enter the job market immediately after graduation.

Before We Forget







Nikki,
It's sweet
you to met the years. Hope we stay friends
Good luck always.
Take ya,

Foreign Exchange Students

Contrasting cultures were represented by three engaging young ladies from three different countries in this year's foreign exchange program. Ljiljana Tomic of Yugoslavia was hosted by Eileen Derrango. Mariella Chieppa, who represented Italy, stayed with Laurie Thompson, and Yomiko Egawa came from Japan. Besides attending classes, these young women participated in various clubs and after school activities. All who encountered them gained personal insights into lives of foreign teen-agers.

That We Hold Today

On January 12, the Student Council Activities Committee participated in the annual Wheel-Chair Olympics. C.C., along with three other schools, competed in the event which was held at the Capital City Mall. The event's purpose was to provide an understanding of how the handicapped live. The participants had to maneuver wheelchairs through an obstacle course. C.C. placed second, and Diane Triano was the top female scorer of all the teams.

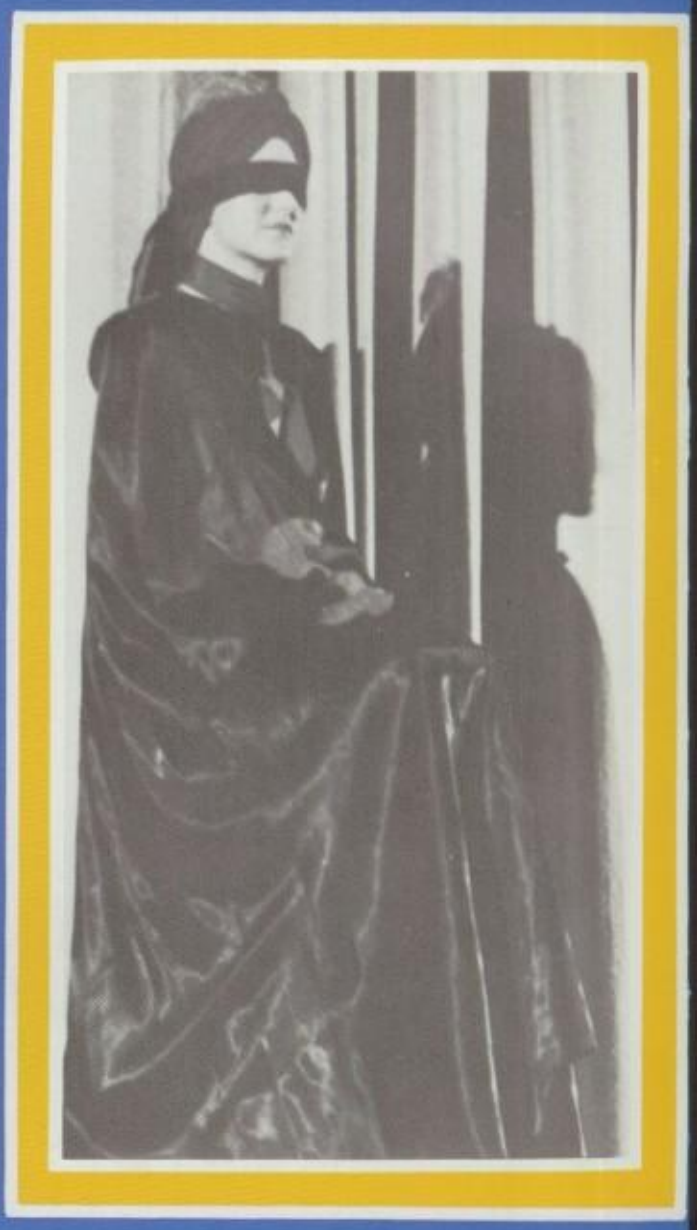
Homecoming. Kim Scott, Kay Weist, Sue Graci, Faith Loy, Kelly Quick, Lindlee Jenner, Laurie Blair.

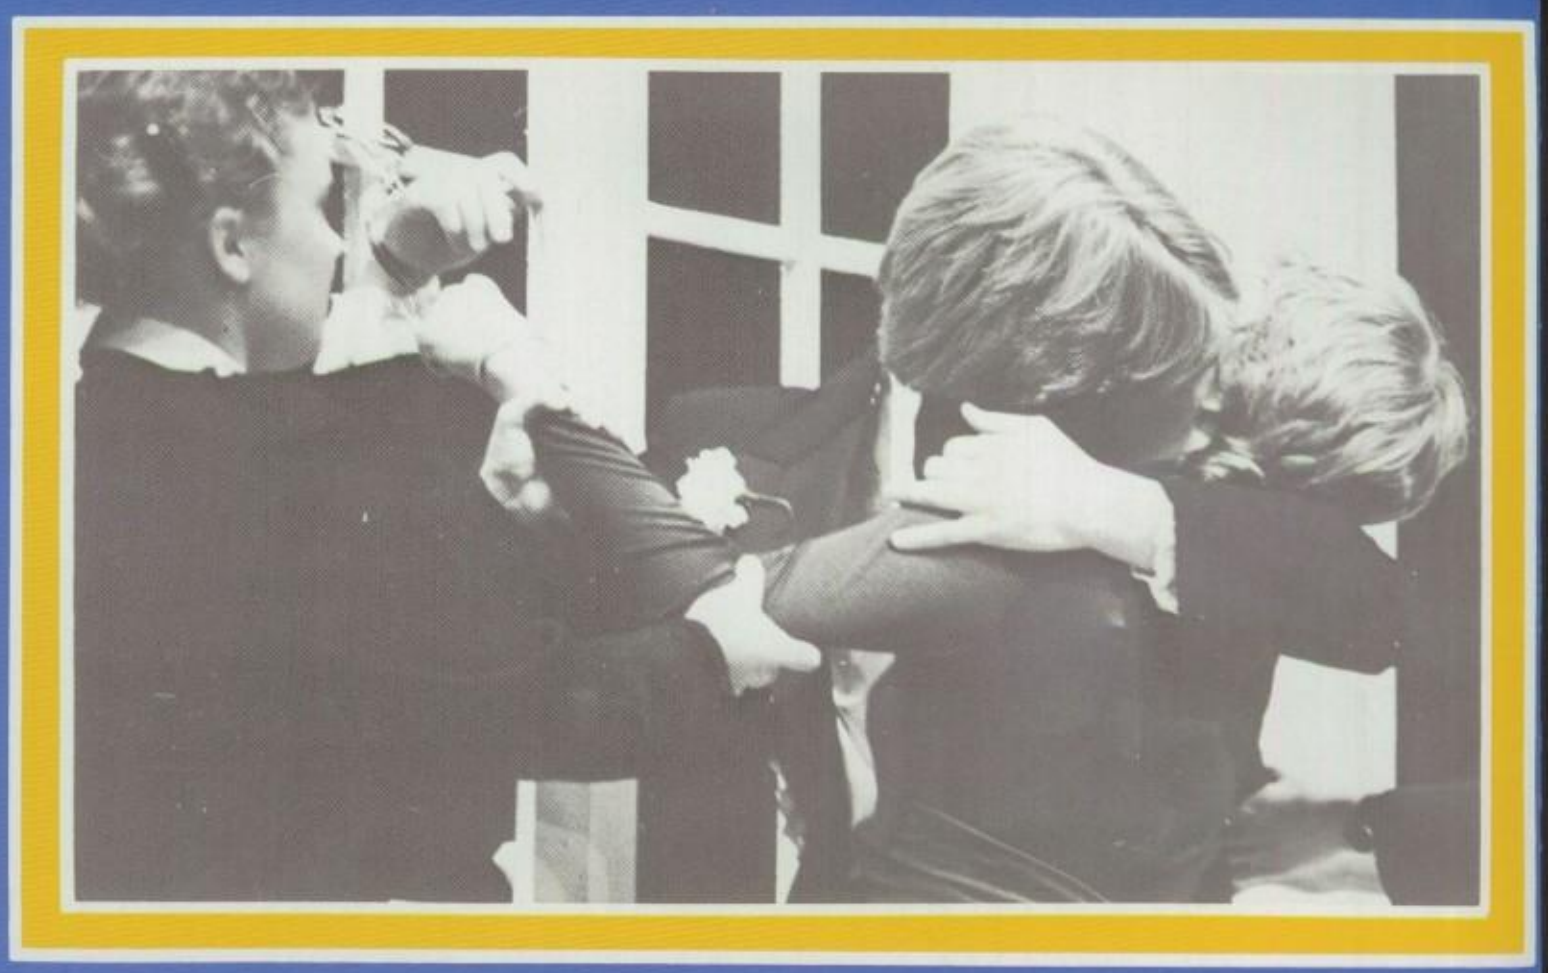
Faith Loy was crowned queen at Cedar Cliff's first informal Homecoming Dance on November 2. The lively music of Silver City and the brightly decorated gym made the evening a festive occasion for everyone. Due to heavy rains, the court was honored at the Lock Haven game on November 10, where the Colts' thrilling victory ended an undefeated season.

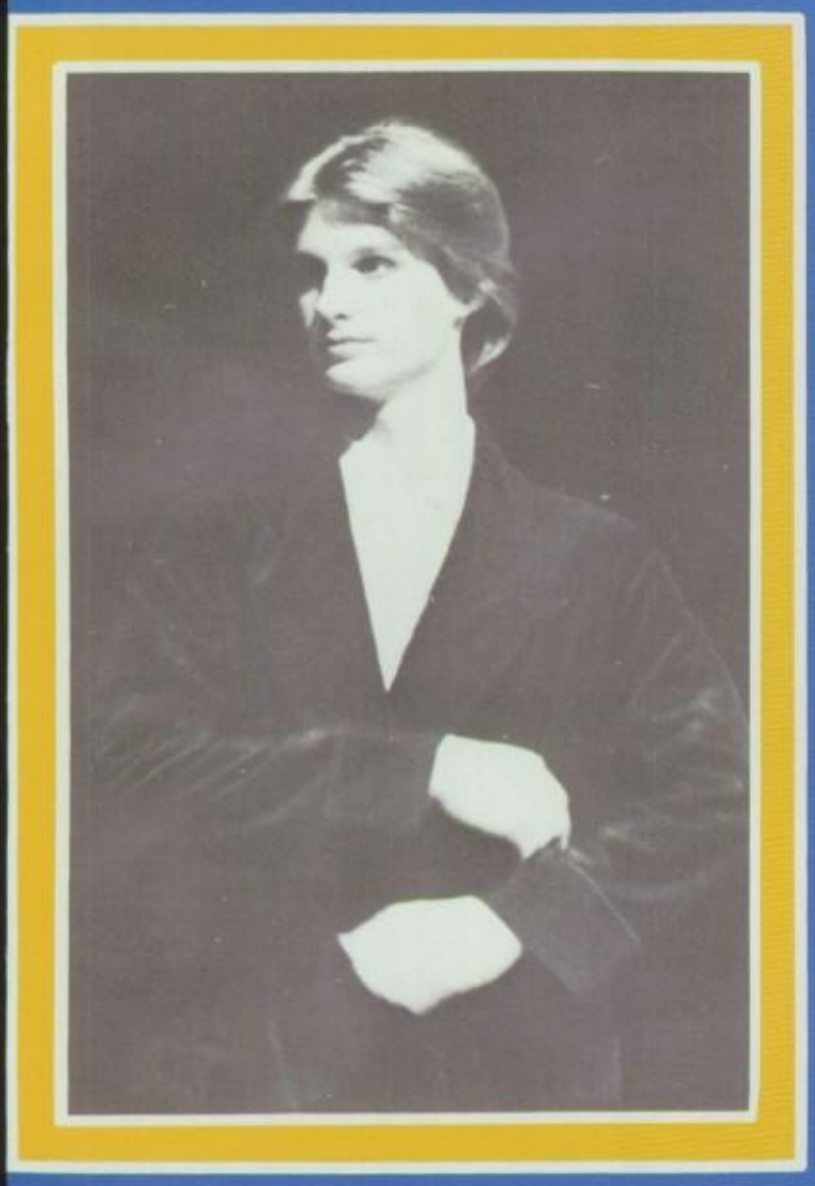
Under the direction of Mrs. Lillian Juditz and Denise Calabrese, the senior class presented "The Great Sebastians," a three act melodramatic comedy written by Harold Lindsay and Russel Crouse.

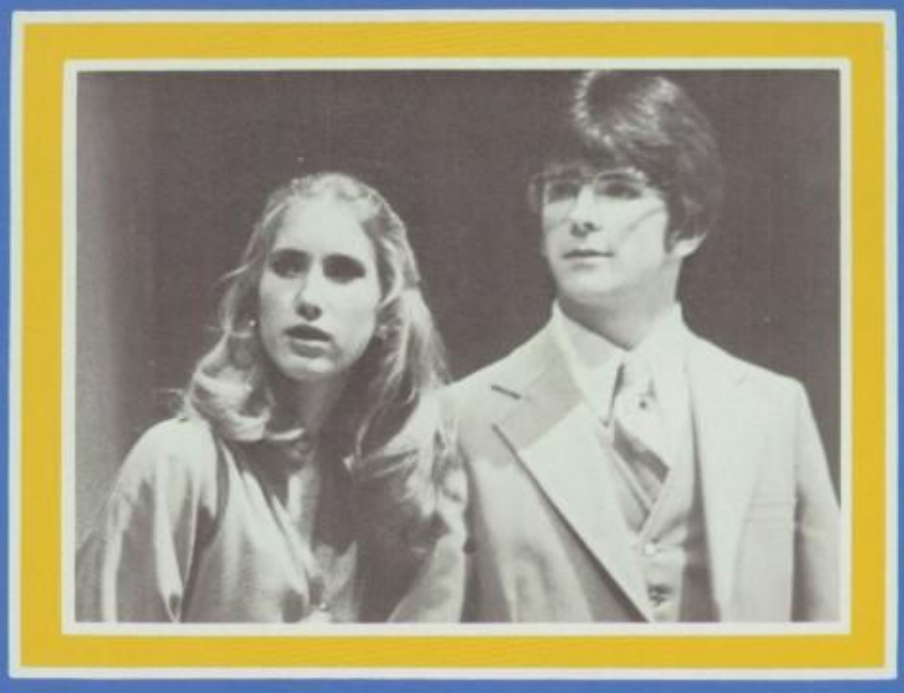
The leading roles were portrayed by Jeanne Proko and Mac Kennedy; Scott Horton and John Neely had major supporting parts.

Despite the usual problem of cast members missing practices and the additional problem of a lack of a stage crew, two successful performances were given on December 6 and 7.









"The Great Sebastians"

Christmas Around Cedar Cliff

In keeping with the holiday spirit, the Apprentice Drama Club presented "The Littlest Angel."

The cast consisted of 16 underclassmen under the direction of Denise Calabrese. JoAnn Richards portrayed the title role; Jamie Grahman and Hugh Plautz held other major parts. Performances were given at Fort Hunter, Highland Elementary School, and the Lemoyne Community Center.

Snow Queen

Sue Campbell and escort Steve Sefter.

Kim Perrine and escort Steve Stahl.

Denise Pogue and escort Kent Holmes.

Sue Quigley and escort Paul Fisette.

Sandy Rudy and escort Jim McDonald.

White Christmas Formal

The annual White Christmas Formal added a special touch to the holiday season. The dance was held on December 28 at the West Shore Country Club. Excitement mounted as Mac announced Barb Johnston as Snow Queen. Barb was crowned by Risa Robertson, last year's queen.

Couples danced to the music of the Joe Hojak Quartet amidst beautiful yuletide decorations. The dance was a wonderful way of ending 1979.

"We're Number One" was the chant for the 1979 C. C. Colts. Led by Coach Craig, captains Ross Brinley, Doug DiMartile, and Steve Sefter, the 1979 varsity football team marched through ten opponents to its first undefeated season.

Sefter and Brinley were Big 33 nominees and along with DiMartile and Bob Bender were named to the South Central League All Star Team.

The Colts' perfect season resulted in the South Central League Championship, a second place ranking in the entire state, and a never-to-be forgotten celebration after the Lock Haven victory.

The golf team finished its season with a 5-3 record. Of the ten members on the squad, only one, Mike Nichols, was a senior.

Tom Simpson and Jeff Fickinger placed third and fourth respectively in the South Central League and also qualified for the district tournament.

During the season, Tom, Jeff, and Scott Bowman won medalist honors at various matches.

Girls' Tennis

The long, tedious hours of summer practices paid off for the girls' tennis team this season. Led by sophomore Barb Knisely and senior Deb Holland, the squad compiled a commendable record of 7 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. With only two returning lettermen, the netwomen proved to be a powerful team by tying for third place in the South Central League.

Soccer

Inexperience hampered the soccer team this season. Only one-third of the players had any previous organized training. The team, one of C.C.'s newest, was coached by Dreher Richards. Games and practices were held at Allen Middle School. In spite of a 2-7 record, the players maintained spirit and enthusiasm. Coach Richards can look forward to a much more experienced team returning next year.

Captains Jeannine Fish, Carl Helstrom, and Sue Daugherty led the 35 member swimming and diving teams. Under the direction of Miss Judith Hawthorn, the teams practiced many hours at the YMCA pool.

Although the teams experienced losing seasons, certain individuals managed to shine. At the Chambersburg meet, Carl Helstrom placed first in the 50 yard freestyle. Craig Stouffer and Vince Mitchell placed first and second respectively in the diving competition.

The delay involved in the process of selecting a new coach may have adversely affected the gymnastics team this year. After weeks of deliberation, Debbie Fern was appointed coach.

Returning seniors Laurie Blair and Roberta Weaver led the thirteen member team. At a novice meet Laurie placed second in the balance beam and all around; Roberta received fourth place in floor exercises. Lynne Murdoch was crowned the Tri-county Intermediate Champion in February.

Nikki,

To a really sweet person who I met in gymnastics this year. It was fun to be around you through all those "slaving" practices. Well hope to see you there next year. Good luck with everything and have a nice summer.

Love,
Lynne M.

P.S. Say hi to Mr. Deck!
